“ Amber was the daughter of a good friend. She babysat for my son Jay for one summer several years ago. She was a very shy, sweet and, dependable young girl. I haven't seen her in awhile but I'm sure she was a wonderful mother. I will pray for her family and hope they can be comforted by their memories. May this sweet angel rest in eternal peace.

I spent a lot of time talking with Amber at Citi before the pandemic, I repaired their copiers. She was one of the sweetest people ever. It was obvious, her family meant everything to her. Matt and their boys are in my prayers, fly high sweet Amber until we meet again.
