“ To Anna's Family,

My deepest sympathy for the loss of your mother. I spent some time with her on Thursday before her passing. She was very proud of her family and we shared memories of our late husbands each time I was at her home. She helped me get through the loss of my husband, each time as only a widow can.

May she rest in peace now and be happy to be back together with her husband.

“ Dear Tracy, Robert, Gerard and family: Kevin and I are so very sorry at the loss of such a wonderful mother, grandmother and friend. She really was a special person in our lives and her loyalty, her heart for others was duly notable. She was a very thoughtful person in that she would cut her own flowers and bring them just to perk you up somewhat. She never said a word out of turn and was very much a lady through and through. Anna will be missed very much by us and her visits were always so pleasant. She'd always come a little early to chat with a coffee and snack before getting her hair done and I always enjoyed that. She was nearly the only one that could get away with that and I really looked forward to those times. She had such a good head on her shoulders but never really let on if she wasn't feeling too good and sympathize if you were having some rough times with certain things. She'd ignore her bad times to ask if yours had improved just to lift you up. Just an all around serventile attitude many could have learned from and I know I have. She was very selfless in friendships. I truly loved her as a whole person and always had a wonderful connection every time we were in the same place in time. Nothing but good memories will be had of our precious friend Anna. Till we all meet again, she will be missed very much so. Anyone that knew Anna will undoubtedly carry a piece of her soul within. And those related were very fortunate to carry even more. I was truly blessed with her presence in my life.
