“ Growing up, I lived in a house towards the end of Kent Lane in Silex. When I was old enough & when the weather allowed it, I & several others, would walk up to the beginning of the road where the school bus would stop to pick us kids up. Betty, whose house is the 1st on that lane, right on the corner, kept a very watchful eye on us kids when we got on & off the bus. It was so nice knowing she was keeping a look out for our safety. Sometimes, after being dropped off, if their garage door was open, which it was quite often, I would chat for just a few minutes with her & husband before heading home. I liked how their house & yard were always so neat & orderly looking & I liked the wood workings they made & placed in their yard. Betty never forgot who I was, even after we moved from off of Kent Lane. Through the years, when I got to run into her, we'd talk & laugh. Even later on, during her stays in the local hospital, where I work. Such a lovely & sincere lady & so fun to talk with. I'll miss you Betty. Rest peacefully with our Lord. My sincerest condolences to the entire family, especially Janis & Jimmy. ❤️
