

Bobbi Hunter

June 26, 1953 - August 8, 2013

Bobbi Jo Hunter, 60, of Chicago, Illinois was born into eternity Thursday afternoon, August 8, 2013 at their family farm near Truxton, Missouri.

She was born on this earth on June 26, 1953 in Poplar Bluff, Missouri; the daughter of Joe Robert and Wanda Lee (Tomes) Stinson. She was united in marriage to Steven L. Hunter, on August 8, 1981. She and her husband Steve, who was a hospital administrator, were currently residing in Chicago, Illinois.

Mrs. Hunter received her R.N. degree from Missouri Baptist University and her C.R.N.A. degree from Barnes/Washington University in St. Louis Missouri.

She practiced as a nurse anesthetist in Jefferson City and St. Louis, Missouri, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma and Granite City, Illinois. Mrs. Hunter was the President and Owner of Assisted Care at Home in Scottsdale, Arizona.

She is survived by her husband Steven L. Hunter; her parents, Joe Robert and Wanda Lee Stinson of Hazelwood, Missouri; one daughter, Victoria Elizabeth Hunter and her finace' Jason Nash of Scottsdale, Arizona; two sons, Ryan Hunter and wife, Tonya of Hazelwood, Missouri and Jeff Hunter and wife, Shana of Choctaw, Oklahoma; two grandchildren, Dylan Hunter and Hudson Hunter; and her sister, Regina Harrell and her husband, Leonard of Houston, Texas.

A private celebration of her life will be held Monday at the family farm near Truxton, Missouri. In lieu of usual contributions, Bobbi would like for you to send flowers to someone you love in memory of her.

Arrangements are under the direction of KEMPER-MARSH-MILLARD Family Funeral Chapels, 41 Farm Lane, Hawk Point, Missouri; (636) 338-4375.

Condolences may be left for the family online at www.kempermarshmillardfamilychapels.com

“ Sincerest of condolences to the Stinson family, long-time neighbors and friends!
Bobbi was one of my best childhood friends! It is so shocking to hear of her passing, but she is forever etching in my heart and mind as a wonderfully vibrant and great friend and person.
I will sorely miss her! We (my family) will be remembering yours in prayer!

“ My Precious Bobbi:
Your friendship was a blessing from God. You were the most loving, caring, compassionate and loyal friend. You always called my husband, "Your Miracle Man!" You loved your family with a fierce passion; especially your soulmate/husband, Steve. You epitomized the words loving wife, mother, daughter, YaYa, sister, and friends. Your professional life was impeccable. We miss you already. Rest in peace in God's loving arms. I will always love you.....till we meet again.
