“ My sympathy to Carl's family. I, too, graduated with him from Silex High and he was always good for a laugh! May God hold you each, give you strength, and comfort.

“OMG. This news and loss is just heartbreaking. "Curly" was much loved by many, including me and my late husband. He was actually my first official date who came to pick me up and meet my mom. He carried me around his place at his house party the night of our senior graduation in 1977 (not 76). He and i were also senior prom king and queen that same year. When Carl and Molly lived in pampa texas, I bbq'd chicken at their house for the first time - curly taught me how to fo it and it was delicious. He visited us when my husband had heart surgery in 2018 and he advised me to talk to the hospital clergy bc he had just done so for molly. He was one stellar human BEING. I loved him very much. Im truly sorry i didnt know in time to mlm pay my respects today. Prayers for his girls and gary.
