“ Dear Brett & Tracy,

We were very sad to learn of the passing of Aunt Carol. She was a wonderful cousin and person. While I was in Vietnam, she wrote me and even picked me up at the airport when I came home on leave. She always had a laugh and smile. Later when Ronnie and I moved back to St. Louis and lived near her off McKelvey, we enjoyed great visits and lots of laughter over pizza at Serra's. She loved her work with the USO, loved her favorite spot in Mexico, loved her friends and family. She was always on the go, no dust ever collected on her shoes! She talked lovingly of you both. How fortunate you were to have a Mom like her. We hope in time that wonderful memories will replace the sadness in your heart. Love, Jerry & Veronica(Ronnie) Boxx
