“ I learned of Cathy's passing yesterday (9/10/25). I met Cathy many years ago while Dad & Mom & I was visiting at Uncle George's house in St L. I must have been about 11 years of age at that time. I liked Cathy as soon as I met her. She was a sweet and kind natured girl and I could tell at that time that she and David were very much in love with each other. Through the years I had the privilege of seeing her from time to time at family gatherings, with Mom (Aunt Mary) when David was in hospital, and sadly at a Smith Chapel annual meeting after David had passed. The last time I saw Cathy was at the funeral of her daughter Tina Marie Stotler; in Troy, MO. Even though she was mourning the loss of her daughter, she was still the same sweet and loving natured lady that I had met so many years before. Rest in peace sweet lady - Uncle Buss and Aunt Mary Aubuchon's daughter – Ruthie.
