“ Clayton put the lives and safety of others before his own. We were good friends in grade school at Hawk Point and I always looked up to him. It takes a dedicated and devoted person to live on one side of the state and work on the other. His dedication, good work and service will surely be missed.

Ralph and I both knew Clayton and will miss him. He had a wonderful sense of humor. I was sharing an apartment with his wife Betty when they met. I went to 12 years of school with Betty. Betty and Clayton and Ralph and I both have good memories both individually and together.
