“ Most of my memories are of Cory as a kid. I first met him when he was about five months old and over the next ten years it seemed that every time I saw him he was in constant motion. Climbing, running, jumping, playing with his cousins and smiling. I saw him rarely over the last twenty plus years (the last time was when he built some really great shelves for me) but on those occasions when I did see him, the Cory that I saw was still that same smiling kid I knew from years ago.

“ I haven't seen you in years. I can honestly say in elementary school you were always smiling. You always made others smile. It's like that's what you were here for, to make others happy. I will never forget in class to had to Barrow a pencil we had to give teacher collateral.....long story short you used to tease us and give them your eye!! Yes your eyeball!! It was always the highlight of my day, week. Thank you for always making me smile. I'll never forget you!!! Never.

“ Oh Cory, you fought so hard! I was so blessed to be there when you entered this world and so heartbroken to be there when you left. Memories??? Wow, where do I start? Full of energy, smiles, fun, and love your entire life. Going swimming at Grandpa and Grandma's. Playing cars with Grandma Bennett. Playing video games at my house. Easter Egg hunts. Birthday parties. Christmas Eve dinners with the family. And such a favorite memory of going to Florida to visit Grandpa and Grandma. Your hugs were epic! I will miss you every day until I see you again. Aunt Cheri
