

Danny "Dan" Joe Davis Sr.

May 7, 1955 - April 2, 2026

Danny "Dan" Joe Davis, Sr., a beloved resident of Troy, Missouri, passed away on Thursday, April 2, 2026, at Barnes-Jewish Hospital in St. Louis, Missouri. Born on May 7, 1955, in St. Louis, Missouri, Dan was the son of Gradie Robert and Ruby Bernice (Harris) Davis. He married three times: first to Renee Sontheimer, secondly to Kendra Boone, who preceded him in death, and later to Patricia Montijo with whom he separated but remained very close friends.

Dan's educational journey began at Elm Grove Elementary School, Kirby Junior School, and he graduated from High School from North County Tech, with a focus on auto mechanics. He found immense joy in spending countless hours on the open road, riding his motorcycle. He'd ride as often as he could. Mowing the grass was another passion of his, as we think it reminded him of the thrill of riding his motorcycle. He'd listen to music on his headphones and go for hours, often mowing over the same areas again. Dan possessed an exceptional ability to fix almost anything he set his mind to, particularly small engines, which he took pride in rebuilding.

Dan was an avid communicator, often engaging in conversations with his friends over his CB radio, or talking on his cell phone. Baseball always held a special place in his heart. He frequently found himself on the field, umpiring games or coaching. Fishing was another cherished activity for him, especially when spent with his family or friends.

Dan is survived by many: wife, Patricia Davis; siblings Tom Davis and Laura Davis; children Erica Sabourin, Kaydi Byington (Allen), Danny Davis, Jr. (Molly), Tiffany Davis, and Dillon Davis; step-children Melissa Carver, Danielle Montijo, and Brendan Montijo; and grandchildren Samantha Witzig (Tommy), Ron, Cameron, Brandon, Riley, Zander, Kendra, Lydia, Airus, Zoe, and Oliver, step-granddaughter Kyra, great-grandchildren Hadley and another on the way, Delaney.

He is preceded in death by his parents, Gradie and Ruby Davis, and his brother, Robert "Bob" Davis, and his son-in-law Ron Sabourin.

“ I had a lot of good memories with my brother Danny a couple of them was I might have been 10 11 years old and my girlfriend Teri, Terry and I would walking down the street going home and it was about 8:00 at night and he just got off school cuz they had split shifts at school in Hazelwood at that time and he hid behind a tree and scared the living daylights out of Teri and I It just got done raining and we had our Barbie doll cases with us and we slid down the little hill all the way in to the front yard and he thought it was so funny My sister Margie and Teri's sister Cheryl was with us too Danny thought it was just so funny. Teri and I fell down on top of our Barbie doll cases and slid all the way I skipped up my knees and my elbows I just won't forget his laugh he thought that was funny. I remember coming home one day from school and he had this I think it was a 1965 Chevy black and our parents driveway and when I got home he had a cherry picker there with the engine up near and he was sitting where the engine was and he had grease all over him working on the motor and we start calling Grease monkey he taught me a lot about automotive and when I got old enough to go to North county tech I thought I'd be a beautician but I ended up passing Auto mechanic instead of the beautician test but the auto mechanic shop was all filled up won't forget that neither Danny showed me how to work on a car. I could sit here and tell a couple more memories but that's good enough cuz it's in my heart. I love you Danny. Your little sister Laura Davis
