“ Debbie was like a sister to me. We worked a lot together with the St Louis clowns, south county branch. She was a funny, warm, Christian whom walks with the Lord now Debbie's had the most beautiful handwriting and drawing I've ever seen. I will miss her laugh and smile and stories of her grandchildren and great grandchildren she told with so much love and pride. Debbie, eat as many potato chips as you want in heaven. I will love you always. My heartfelt condolences to Shannon, Ben and family.
