“ Jim, Danielle and Family, I received the message from Zenda that Donna was in the hospital with pneumonia and not doing well, I immediately started praying. We don't understand why, and we question why because it doesn't seem fair. Donna was such a good Sunday School Teacher for the little children. She loved during it and the children loved her. I can only smile and think of mother and daughter united once again, as we all will be united some day. Please keep the faith and know God loves all of you and so do we. Keeping you in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Jim and Danielle, We did not learn of Donna's illness until the end. We have so many fond memories of being in high school together. We moved on for a brief time while Ken was in the military. Then we came together again sharing the birth of Danielle and our Jennifer. If I remember right, they were only thirteen days apart. Then we moved apart again when Ken, became employed with Nalco Chemical Company. Just recently we were reunited on facebook. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. Can't believe she's gone. God has plans for the special angels in our lives. We will keep you all in our prayers.

“ Jim and Danielle & Tom,
I am sorry to hear of your trials and tribulations this past few weeks. I am equally sorry at the loss of your wife and mother. I wish I knew the magic words that would ease your suffering today but I do not. What I do know is you will cry often for a while. Eventually, you'll remember something and smile and then cry and then one day you will smile at the memories and they will bring you comfort. May God hold you in the warmth of His arms a little more tightly as you travel this new path.
