“ I recall the many summers and holidays we spent together. I remember how we would dig through Grandpa's shed to find neat knick-knacks and how he showed me up when we went fishing together as kids. I'll remember our trip to the Grand Canyon and I definitely will remember our last trip together a few years ago to see Grandma. Eric was a good man and he will be sorely missed.

“ Eric will always be considered part of our family! He loved my kids and would come to their birthday parties. We always went camping mothers day weekend and so many other times. We had so many adventures in our little click. Which they all called me mom. And I will forever cherish the many memories with you Eric! Miss and love you!
