“ We have such fond memories of visits with Florence when the Starck and Albright families would gather. We often enjoy her zucchini cake recipe she shared with me many years ago. We were so sorry to hear of her death. Unfortunately, we will not be able to attend her visitation but we will keep the family in our prayers. Karen and Ralph Starck

“ Joe and family,
This is quite a shock to all of us. She was such a happy person, never met a stranger, and loved to visit. I appreciate the time you both took to check on Mom and take her on small trips when you were able. Mom considered you both to be good friends. I am still getting used to Mom's passing so this really shocked me. At least we have peace knowing where she and Mom are and be assured that they are both happy with no limitations. Joe, please take care of yourself. We know your daughters will help you. It will be hard not having her companionship but you can still talk to her. Someday soon we will all be together again forever with our loved ones and the Lord. Can you imagine the great Family Reunion it will be.

Love & prayers,
