“ When I was young, Aunt Joann & Gary, Larry, Terry and Brian lived in the same subdivision as we did. Although I was very young, Gary was a cousin who I thought was so cool. Gary was always so kind and gentle. The times that we would see each other would be years apart, but he was the same Gary every time I saw him. Always funny and making people laugh!! Praying for the family in this time of pain. God be with you til we meet again, Cuz. <3

“ Gary truly loved his and Carol's grandkids. He would always take time to chat and be with them. His fondest memories were of them bringing snakes and frogs up to him while digging the poor creatures out of their pockets. Or sneaking chocolate milk without grandma knowing.
