

Glenda Kay Yorty

July 16, 1938 - September 4, 2024

Glenda Kay Yorty was born on July 16, 1938, and stepped from this life into eternity on Wednesday, Sept 4, 2024. Glenda grew up in the St. Louis area and lived and worked in Troy and the St. Louis area for most of her life. She was the daughter of Vernon and Sarah Rachel {Rae}Yorty and not only a daughter, but a twin. Her twin sister was Gloria Rae.

Glenda did many things in her life. As a young woman she was a stewardess working with Ozark Airlines. This was an adventurous job, and she was beautiful in her uniform. She and her sister Gloria had a Rock and Mineral shop in the Springfield area at one time in their lives. Glenda worked at a jewelry store in St. Louis and at Wal-Mart. She wasn't afraid of hard work. Even in her early 80's she would be mowing her own yard or working on her flowers. She loved her flowers and her garden.

One of her very favorite things was her cats. She loved cats!! They were special company to her. Glenda had a funny sense of humor and was a very loyal person. She knew how to bring encouragement when needed to others. If you knew Glenda, you knew she had a love for her Lord Jesus Christ. She was strong in her faith, devoted her life and her belief in God. She had a heart to win souls. There is no doubt she is rejoicing in the presence of our Savior at this very moment.

Glenda was preceded in death by her parents, Vernon and Rae Yorty and her sister, Gloria Yorty (Jim) Grosse of Shiver, Texas.
