“ Condolences to the Ritter families. When we were young we spent a lot of time with our cousins. One memory was hank spending the day with my little brother Rich and when he came home he smelt of smoke and they had a cigar. My mom was not to happy. Hank and I are same age so we spent time together in our teenage years with the older brothers. Went to North drive inn and snuck some us in the trunk. Lots of happy memories. Jean,Karen, Henry. I am sorry for your loss. Your dad was good to me and to St. Alphonsus School. I tried to attend his celebration of life, but arrived a little late and only one vehicle was on the parking lot. I have good memories of Cathy, Michael, Zach and Emmanuel when you were students in Millwood. I will keep your dad and all of you in my thoughts and prayers.
