“ I was Jill's teacher at Walnut Grove. Jill was the most precious child I have ever been blessed to teach. Teachers are not suppose to have favorites, but yes, she was mine. Her beautiful smile and acts of kindness at such a young age bonded the two of us forever. She visited me often as she continued her education. She helped me put up bulletin boards and joined me on field trips after she graduated from high school. My heart is broken because I lost a dear young friend. My deepest condolences to her husband and entire family. I'm sending you all my strength and love. I know she is sitting next to her beautiful Mother and they are holding each other tightly. I am Blessed because she touched my life.
