

Joann Throgmorton

July 27, 1932 - September 14, 2016

Joann Throgmorton (nee Helena Joann Bormann) passed away peacefully following a short illness on Wednesday, September 14, 2016, surrounded by her family.

Joann was born July 27, 1932, to August Carl and Helen Christina (Kuhlmann) Bormann on the Bormann Family Farm in Metropolis, Illinois. The oldest of six children, she and her siblings spent their youth in rural Massac County, Illinois.

In November of 1952, Joann married John Truman Throgmorton at the Upper Salem Church and to them were born three children: Carla Ann, John Russell and Kyle August.

Early on, Joann taught elementary education and then later, in the early 1970s, she founded CarJo Ceramics, which remained open until 2015. Joann was always up for an adventure; she enjoyed traveling and she never met a stranger. She was an avid card player (especially rummy and pinochle).

Joann is survived by her 3 children: Carla (Steve) Emert, John (Melissa) Throgmorton, and Kyle (Joyce) Throgmorton, 7 grandchildren and 2 great grandchildren. In addition, she is survived by her 4 sisters: Gwen, Yvonne, Carol and Karen, sister in law Sue, numerous nieces and nephews, her aunt Martha, many cousins and special friends. Her parents, Carl and Helen Bormann and her brother Carl Kenneth Bormann preceded her in death.

Her family kindly requests, in memory of Joann, that you “pay forward” a good deed. Send flowers to a loved one. Volunteer your time at a school, senior center, food bank or animal shelter. Adopt a rescue pet. Be kind and charitable in your words and actions.

The family invites everyone to celebrate Joann’s life, from 1:00 p.m. to 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 25, 2016 at the Woods Fort Golf Course and Restaurant located at 1 Country Drive Troy, MO 63379. A graveside service will be held at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday, November 6, 2016 at the Massac Memorial Gardens in Metropolis, IL.

“ I will never forget this lady. She was my best friend. She was a best friend to many people. I found her shop in 1976 when I think I was with my cousin's and their friend and they stopped in there. I think I was there every time her doors were open after that. She was a good good friend to me. I have to say my teenage years were a hard time for me feeling like I didn't fit in. Joann probably helped a lot of people and she didn't know it. A simple act of kindness could save anybody's day. And Joann was most kind all the time. I will never, never forget her. Joann, thank you for being so nice to me.

“ Carla, been thinking of you this week. I will miss seeing Joann at the nursing home. Whenever I spoke to her at the home she always had that warm smile that I remember from the days when I did ceramics at her shop.

“ It is so fun to remember all the good times at Car-Jo! from about 1976 until 2013, I was a fan! So big, I bought a kiln from Joann and she helped me accumulate hundreds of molds and made sure I had the knowledge to use them all! We had some good laughs and she threw the best birthday parties at the shop!

“ I have some wonderful memories. I remember riding a Grey Hound bus to St Louis from Carbondale; and Aunt Joann and family picking me up too visit for a few days. I always had fun. We frequently ate outside which was something I did not do much at home. One year, I went with Aunt Joann and family to the Smoky Mountains and camped in a little popup camper. Later Aunt Joann and Grandma both got involved in ceramics. I made ceramics in both locations. My last visit to Troy was a few years ago when Bob and I were driving out west to the Badlands and we stopped overnight at Joann's. Joann was actually put us up in her bed while she slept on a cot. I have some very fond memories!

“ John your mom had the brightest smile it could be seen not just on her face but through her! I learned ceramics from her and she always remembered me even if it had been years between seeing her. I was glad we could reconnect through church. She will be missed until we see her again. May God bless you with lots of precious memories! Brenda Saxe
