“ Thank you everyone for coming to my dad's funeral service today. I'd like to take a moment and say a few words...

What a dark day for all who knew my father.

He was an amazing man who developed such skill in whatever project he had in front of him.

As a child I looked up to him the way only a son could see his father. He brought me up the best way he knew how and made me stronger, smarter and passed along the passion of skill to whatever is in front of ME. While he wasn't always around to tend to the scrapes a young man gets this made me who I am today and I'm grateful for all the things I had to do on my own. He made me the man I am today by making sure I got the lessons I needed.

He will be missed by many. And will live on in the hearts of those of us who knew him well.

A great father, son, brother and friend. I love you dad and promise to pass on the wonderful things you taught me to my son James.

Know that you're loved and as always Shine on!

“ I remember John as always having a bright smile on his face and contagious laughter. If John was around there was a pitch game going. We will always remember that John could make 4 with a pencil. Rest in peace, John
