“ Uncle Scott, Although I may not talk about you much or write on your Facebook wall. I do miss you. I miss you so much. I am just lucky I got to see you a couple weeks before you passed. You were so excited to be starting a new job and getting your life back on track. We even talked about me getting pregnant again. I told you that if I didn't have another baby by 35 I was done. Well you passed in March 2014 and I got pregnant in July 2014. In my heart I really think you had a hand in that. You made my wish come true and I got my son! When I look at him I see you. He is so caring and loving! Thank you! I know he has a piece of you in him. We all miss you so much!! I love you!!! Keep watching over us! Tell Aunt Donna, Connie, Joey, Little Joe and Danny that we all love and miss them too!

“ Is it getting close to Christmas and it never gets better. I look at all the little ones and how messed up the family is and it is not fair. I wish there could be peace but we have lost so much in a short period of time and they have been all young.

I my heart hurts but I know you are in a much happier place, in pain, no sadness just Pure Love surrounded by all of the Loved ones that we have lost. You had the biggest heart when it came to kids. You were just moving on when God called you home, but I know I will see you someday. God knew you would be so happy with him.

It was such a short time between Danny and then losing you. Just like Joey and Joe Boy. God has a plan and he knows when someone is getting tired of just hurting so he wanted you to live in his Heavenly Home with all the family.

So baby brother you are free now so Fly High and watch over all the kids they need and Angel tell all the others I miss them.

“ Well you and all of our Angels in Heaven have watched over baby Jackson his surgery went great and is his doing great.

They say only if Scott was here well you are here you all are. You are much happier now, to know you are at peace is the only thing that gets me through the hurt. I wish you could have gone on with your new life you were moving on but I guess God wanted you with him. I know all of our Angels were watching over Jackson and surrounding Shannon and the family with your love.

I look up to the skies and a wonder what all of you do all day. Scott things do go on but they are never the same it is fall now you would be hunting and fishing and having barbques. You were the best brother 8 sisters could have ever had. At the end you were just dealt to many big hurts and your heart broke from the pain. But you know no pain now just pure LOVE.

Please watch over all the kids in the family as they go through life.

So sleep well, and fly high you earned you wings. It is said "Your wings were ready, but I was not ready to lose you" I remember it as if it was yesterday I hate to hear my phone ring just never knowing.

Baby brother I miss so much I have a candle by your photo and all the others who have gone to be Home with God I light it for all of you. Life has to go on but it is never the same I know you are with mom I know she was so happy to see you. “ Baby Brother,

Today is a hard day thinking of all the love ones we have lost. Life goes on I get up every morning just to remember and feel all the pain again and go to bed at night hoping to dream of all of you. The other day a guy smiled at me and it was your smile he had a mustache to. It will be the first Christmas without you but I know you are celebrating in Heaven and will be watching over all of us, and if you could come back you would not for you are in Heaven where there is no pain, hate, or heart ache. You have the purest Love you could ever have God's Love. So know you are loved and missed everyday, my heart is hurting. I am keeping my promises I made. So sleep with the Angels sweet Baby brother and all of the others in Heaven with you.

“ Scott,

It gets harder as the holidays grow nearer. I know you are in Heaven and having the best than you ever had here. You will be forever young to me, your smile will always be the last thing I saw as you turn to say Good Bye, and I Love You. We will have Christmas Eve but it will not be the same without all of you here with us but you all will be have your Christmas in Heaven were the lights are ever so bright, and the songs and rejoicing never stops. So Baby Brother please keep a watch over Jacob, Justin and Josh and all the children in need you always had a big heart when it came to children never saying NO to anyone. Some days are easier than other but the nights are the worse. So please know you will never be forgotten in my heart or memories. We were so blessed to have had you as a baby brother. Remember you used to laugh at me when I would talk about Karma well I still believe. Tell everyone I send my Love. Sleep with the Angels, and Fly Soar High.

I begged you to come back, but you I know you were telling me you were the happiest you have ever been. Surrounded there with mom and your dad and all the others In God's home happy and surrounded with Love , warmth, and peace the kind none of us will ever know until we meet you again. It was unfair but you are LOVED now. Your big heart still beats in Heaven and your smile lights up the night sky, They say when a loved one dies they become your special Angel and I know you are there when I am down and can barley take it. There is no one who can ever hurt you again, but you did find love again but God wanted you home someday we will know why. So Fly high and ride hard on your Harley for you are free from the hate here on earth. Again thank you for what you did the day you visited. "I miss you but knowing you are happy now makes the pain a little easier. I know you are with all the other ones we have lost and there is so much joy that surrounds you.

I have a special project coming up, some may be able to just go on but my heart is hurting. We had the most heart warming talk right before you left to be with God , I told you there was no reason to be sorry and you did not have to pay me back I found the envelope after you left. You hugged me for the longest time and as you walked away and turned to say I love you with the biggest smile the sun you stood in was the brightest light, a few days later God took you home. I had the strangest feeling that day as if you were at peace.

Things are going on here and I don't know how with all the loss but I do believe in Angels and Debbie had the best Angles watching over her all of our angels. The holidays will be hard but looking at your picture on the fireplace gives me peace that you are okay now and ever so happy I know you are in heaven surrounded with all the loved ones that we have lost. I miss your big hugs and your bigger smile that would light up a room.

Jena, I am 1 of Scott's sisters. My name is Robin. When I read your memory you wrote to my baby brother,I can honestly say it brought tears to my eyes. It is a great struggle for me losing him, but knowing that he left us and was finding happiness with someone does help. Saying that you love him and wishing he was here to go on with your plans you two made breaks my heart. Knowing that the last 5 months you & my baby brother spoke & played poker together makes me know that happiness was sure to be in his future. However God had other plans. You are so right he was a "GREAT MAN" I have so many special memories of him that help me when I am feeling so lost knowing I will never speak to him or feel his great hugs!! I know when he reached Heaven he was welcomed by many family Angels. Baby brother I MISS YOU GREATLY,,,,REJOICE IN THAT BEAUTIFUL PEACEFUL PLACE,,,UNTIL WE ARE UNITED TO OUR ETERNAL HOME PLEASE SOAR AMONG US & KEEP US SAFE. I LOVE YOU BABY BROTHER,,,,YOUR SISSY,ROBIN
