“ I was never at a loss for words in our 10am, Saturdays, phone visits. But for some reason, I am having a very difficult time finding them now.

I would look forward to calling you to tell all about my week and catch up on you and your big family. If I called you during the week, you answered the phone with "its not Saturday". You loved being a grandma and great grandma so much; you were always bragging on one or more of them. Not only did you brag on the little ones, you, also told me about what Kim and her family was up to but also Brian and his partner. You were so proud of your kids.

When we visited you never complained about the pain you were in; you were always happy. We laughed sharing our childhood memories, each from our own perspective. And we giggled a lot.

Judy, I will have some tough Saturdays while I get used to not hearing your voice every week. But I will always remember your laugh and your loving heart.

*Your loving sister,
Joan*
