Kayla was a beautiful woman amazing Mother and artist. In the time that I knew Kayla it was clear to me that she wanted to make a difference in the time she had on this earth and material things did not matter to her. My heart is broken. So happy to have known you Kayla. Fly high Angel. 💔

I'll never forget your wise words and wonderful spirit. The way you saw life and were able to share your insights with others even online from a distance. I'm glad I was able to let you know how much they helped me when I really needed hope in a difficult time. May the universe bring light to all those who knew you and also some of your heart as well.
