“ My thoughts are with Kelly's family. I was blessed to have known Kelly for the past couple of years. She was such a sweet young lady and had a huge smile that always put a smile on my face. She will be missed by many.

“ Kelly was the Best of all of all of us and never and unkind word to anyone even when she was in pain, which we found out was probably her whole life. She had an incredible laugh and a smile like sunshine and danced and loved music and water. Her disabilities were nothing but gifts of the greatest soul we have ever met in this lifetime. We were the blessed ones to have her in our precense and lives and our hearts are broken as we say goodbye until we can meet her again with kisses of joy and love.
