“ I am sorry to learn of Linda's passing. I remember her well from the Dardenne Presbyterian Church years. She was friendly toward my parents, especially my mom after my dad's untimely death. As her tribute reads, she was easy to talk to. In thinking of that, it occurs to me that in every interaction I had with her, no matter what age I was, she addressed me in a straightforward, friendly manner, with no trace of condescension...and always had something interesting to say.

“ Linda was a tireless volunteer and a caring person. She was a peacemaker with a big heart and personality to match. A reliable team player, she always reminded me to care about the people involved. Thank you for your counsel. You are no doubt organizing a CAPERs reunion at this moment. I offer my most sincere condolences to her family. Rest in peace Linda.
