“ I was a friend of Kevin's back in grade school through 8th grade when I moved to Rockford. He was my first best friend, and a better friend I guy couldn't find The pigeon reference in his obit made me smile and brought back so many memories looking through pigeon books and picking out the ones we would get.

He will always be missed by me. One of my life's regrets was losing touch with Kevin. As I get older, and remember my youth, I recently started looking for him online and found his obituary. God Bless Kevin, and his family. I wish I could have known him again as an adult.
