“ Favorite memory of Robbie was July 2012. I stopped by robbie's residence to ask him if he had a rifle I could borrow. He laughed in a smart way and asked Why's that. I replied well robbie it may sound silly but I need to get rid of a groundhog problem at my mom's house. He told me I got a hand full of rifles take your pick. I told him one that's out for the kill. He said well I would take my .22 caliber rifle. That would take it out in one shot. I laughed and told him Ok let me see what you got. So he went inside to grab it and came back out and said here you go. There's plenty of bullets for what your doing. So I laughed and told him alright bring on the groundhogs. I went to get in my car and leave and he yelled you want me to pop them off for you. I told him you can if I miss. 2 months goes by an I haven't seen or talked to him. I forgot that I still had his rifle and needed to return it. One Friday shortly after telling myself I need to go back by and return robbies gun. I decode to stop on Mustang Sally for a cocktail an run right into him. First thing he says is where's my gun! I told him it's actually at home. I was just reminding myself I needed to return it. Robbie said well go get it I been needing to use it. So I told him ok I'll run and get it. Knowing he was serious I thought at the time I leave an head home to grab robbie ' s gun. I shortly return with it back at Sallys. I go in and he says man I was just kidding you didn't ha e to go get it. We both laughed and I told him you got one coming. We talked and laughed about joking around.

*RIP ROBBIE! YOU WILL BE SADLY MISSED A FRIEND
BROTHER SON GRANDSON and Dad. May peace be the journey.
See you again*

“ I have a few really stellar memories of Rob. He was always kind and light hearted. Quick to lend a hand and really listen when you needed him most. I always really liked the guy! There really isn't anything one can say to ease the pain of this kind of loss. Just know that he was a decent soul and you did a good job raising this young man.
