“ Your mom was always so nice to me. And her kindness showed in you boys. It was such a pleasure to see her years later at church together. My prayers are with you all in this difficult time for you, but smile as I know your wonderful parents are reunited in Jesus now.. my deepest sympathy to all the family as she will be greatly missed.

Your momma was a precious soul. Fran and John attended our church prior to covid. She will be missed by so many. The thought of her as being reunited with her devoted husband and Jesus must bring comfort to your hearts, as it does ours. Kenny was honored to pray with her a few days before she entered glory. He said long after his prayer, Fran continued talking to Jesus. He felt so honored to be there. We are sending love and prayers to your family.
