“ This is a silly memory of Travis, I was Kims best friend and at the Thurman house all the time, he was grandpas boy, and could do no wrong. one morning after i had spent the night, we went upstairs for breakfast, sitting at the kitchen table was grandpa and Travis. Travis was eating a huge bowl of Honeycomb cereal, Grandpa Dallas informed me and Kim, that honeycomb was Travis's favorite cereal and we were not to touch it at all. Travis sat there with the biggest grin on his face.

“ Pam and Harold, Our thoughts are with you every moment. We can not even fathom how you are at this time. Just know that if we could help you walk through this we are here. There are no words that we can say to console you other than " we love you," and we are your friends and hold you dear and close to our hearts. Travis was such a nice young man and that truly says so much about the wonderful people that he shared his life with. We love you, and you know that we are here if you need anything. Love to you both, Paul and Mary

“ My Sympathy goes out to my Sister, Pam, to have to loose her only child. I can only image how hard it is on you. I Love you so much Sis and don't know what to say to you to comfort you at this time. May God give you Peace and Comfort at this time.

Travis was around us so much from an early age; his grandma & grandpa Thurman, his Aunt Vickie, Kim, & Angie were all his immediate family. He stayed with us, we took him to school, we watched him all the time day and night. Travis was a very much a part of our lives from the time he was born. We watched him grow from a baby to the young man. It's very hard to see his life cut so short. This young man was our Family member and I don't know how to say goodbye and let go only that I know he is in a better place with our Heavenly Father now.

God have Mercy Upon his Soul!

*May God Bless You,
The Thurman Family (Vickie)*

“ Like many others, I have so many memories it's hard to narrow it down to one but my most recent is the look on his face when the old man asked if I was his daughter and I wrapped my arm around his neck and said "yes I am"..lol

Travis meant the world to so many and my heart feels crushed for Jen, Brent, Kaily, Chase and my dear aunt Pam. I love you all so much and I feel blessed to call Travis my cousin.
