“ I had the coolest big brother growing up. I remember him pulling into our driveway in a 1967 blue Mustang fastback. Listening to the Beach Boys and teasing him about how he danced. I remember a story about him sitting alone by the fire at night on the farm and a wild fox coming to sit with him and keep him company. He even got to live in Germany before me! He married the coolest, prettiest girl - blond hair and white boots. Two beautiful kids that I got to babysit in the summer - more like a little brother and sister than niece and nephew. More recently, I remember hunting for arrowheads in creek banks and beds with him and Pat followed by Turtle soup at the Finn Inn. So much love, so many memories that I will cherish forever.
