“ Dale and I want to share our deepest sympathy to this family, and their loss of a a beautiful lady; so wise so kind and so generous. Willalma was one of the many people we met when we came to Troy and she was a wonderful friend to Dale's mother. She knew how to encourage, love,, live, and give of herself. As time passes we may lose contact of many old friends and acquaintances, but all memories of Willalma are sweet and cherished; a life well lived
May she be blessed by her warm welcome from her creator, Lord and Savior as she changes her address to Heaven. Prayer Arising
Sincerely, Jane and Dale Kelley

“ Dear Glen, Kevin and family,

Willalma was a very special, kind and caring lady. She was a devoted wife, mother and community leader. Her dedication to the regions success is evident in the organizations she served so well. Her passion for community service is a fine example for each of us to embrace. It was truly my honor to have served in so many organizations with her. She and Glen were so kind to me and Clay through the years. I will long treasure warm and happy memories of Willalma. With my thoughts and prayers,
As always,
